TWO FALL WEDDINGS

ONE COUPLE MARRIED AT CHURCH AND ANOTHER AT HOME.

Miss Figg Becomes Mrs. Billups, and Miss Folkes Weds Mr. Figg-Cards that Are Out.

The Leigh-Street Baptist church pregented an attractive scene at 6 o'clock last evening, when Mr. Charles J. Billups and Miss Lillie P. Figg were married. The church was crowded with relatives and friends of the young couple, who came to witness the ceremony that made the twain one. Promptly at the appointed hour the bride and groom entered together and proceeded to the altar, marching to the beau-tiful strains of the organ, which was pre-eided over by Professor Watson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Frost. BETTOW AND GROOM.

The bride, who is one of the most attractive young ladies of the East End, looked very pretty in a travelling suit of brown cloth trimmed with gold passementerie, with hat to match, and carried a lovely bouquet of La France roses.

The groom is a deservedly popular young man, and is junior member of the firm of L. W. Billups & Son.

The ushers, who were in full evening dress with boutconcers of La France roses, were Messrs, Joe L. Rohleder, Walter B. Figg (cousin of the bride), William Russell, Dr. Raymond D. Garcin, H. M. Nuckols, W. W. Vaughan, George A. Goode, and John M. Taylor.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple were driven to the Byrd-Street station, where they took the 6:45 train for a northern trip.

Faust Up to Date. Fanst Up to Date.

The most maghificent audience of the season assembled at the Academy of Music last night to witness the first presentation of "Faust Up to Date." Every seat was filled and all available standing-room was taken. When the curtain rose the orchestra chairs were filled with society people and the gallery was packed with a crowd that represented every class and condition of the nouglation.

tra chairs were filled with society people and the gallery was packed with a crowd that represented every class and condition of the population.

"Fanst Up to Date" is a good specimen of the English burlesque such as is produced at the Gaiety, the Haymarket, and other play-houses of the gay English metropolis. Of course, it is best appreciated by those who have seen Gounod's masterpiece, of which it is a parody. Kate Castleton's rather risque edition of Marguerite and Hilda Thomas's shapely and fascinating Faust are all the more amusing to one who has seen the opera itself, because they are seen in the light of contrast, but are sufficiently well done to interest a person to whom "Faust" is unknown.

The burlesque is superbly mounted and costumed, and the company is equal to any burlesque company ever seen here. The members of the cast are clever people, the skirt-dancers are unusually good, and the women are pretty.

The play, however, has a certain Parisian flavor that makes one feel unpleasant. Some of the sayings are a little off-color, and there is a vein of suggestiveness pervading the entire work. It would be going too far, perhaps, to say that it is coarse—but there are some things that a lady should not hear or see.

Messrs. Page & Carter, yesterday instituted suit in the City Circuit Court against Manager C. Z. Burnbaum for $10,000 damages.

No declaration was filed, but an attachment was sued out, and just after the performance began at the Academy list night Deputy-Sheriff Macon appeared on the stage and served notice on the stage manager not to allow any of the company's part of the box-office receipts were also attached. Counsel for the defence stated later in the evening that no bond had been given by the plaintiff and that the Deputy Sheriff said he had nothing more to do with the matter.

Called on the Governor.

Among the callers on the Governor yesterday were Judge McLoughlin, of Lexington, and Mr. and Mrs. B.A. Colonna, of Accomas, Mr. Colonna is the assistant in charge of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey Office. This gentleman is an excadet of the Virginia Military Institute and was a classmate of Colonel John B. Purcell, Captain Andrew Pizzini, and Colonel W. E. Cutshaw, of this city.

To use his own language, he began in the survey service at "digging post-holes," until now he has risen to the dignity of running the office.

Each of them were also fined one cent.

The Court was adjourned over until tomorrow, as the Commissioners of Election meet in the Clerk's office to-day.

Colonel John Bell Bigger's Family.
Colonel John Bell Bigger's son John, who has been critically ill with typhoid-fever, was improving, but on yesterday he somewhat relapsed and and is again quite sick. Another son, Sam, who has been recently taken, is not yet in a serious condition. His daughter Mary is convalescing, but Sallie is very ill. The family have been watching and nursing for several weeks and have the sympathy of a large circle of friends. Colonel Bigger will not go to his office until the sick ones improve.

Afraid for His Fees. Governor McKinney yesterday refused to pardon two negroes from an adjacent county.

The counsel of the two men asked that the names of the petitioners be kept secret, as he was afraid if they knew their application had been rejected they would not want to pay the attorney's fee.

WASHINGTON CITY

HARRISON'S ADMINISTRATION PARA-LYZED BY THE VICTORY.

ters-Can't Account for the Upheaval-Hume Crushingly Rebuked.

[From Our Regular Correspondent] Washington, November 5.—The sweep-ing Democratic victories from one end of the land to the other have literally paralyzed the Republicans connected with the Harrison Administration, and not one of them can to-day be induced to express a opinion. Mr. Blame was at the State De partment this morning as usual, and while generally receives representatives of the press and often answers any ques the press and often answers any questions that they see fit to put to him, he could not be induced to onen his mouth this day. Some of Mr. Blaine's friends declare that he might have known that a ground-swell would overtake the Republicans, and if he had possessed his usual political sagacity he would not have consented to show himself in a speech-making way just before the people got a chance to rebuke the party for the passage of such an outrageous high-tariff bill, and an attempt to foist upon the country the infamous election bill.

Secretary Noble is another Cabinet officer who was also as quiet as a clam. For many months he has been telling the Administration people that Missouri is a doubtful State, but that grand old Commonwealth has elected a solid Democratic delegation to the next House. In the Forty-eighth Congress Missouri had a solid Democratic delegation, and now Virginia, Maryland, and many other States have swung into line in the same way. THE SILENT NOBLE.

HORRIPIED REPUBLICANS.

It was interesting to watch the people this merning around the bulletin-boards. The Republicans were simply horrided as they read the returns. Every telegram that came in made it look worse for the poor old party that has been ruined by Boss Reed, Boss Quny, and the upstart Langston whom the Radicals seated in the piace of Mr. Venable. The Republicans got no consolation from the figures that were put upon the boards, and they walked away with heavy hearts. They had to admit that never in the history of political contests has any party received such a setback. Congressman Billy Mason, of Chicago, was here. He left Chicago the other day feeling that his redection was a certainty. A son of his died in Washington and he had to come on to the funeral Little did he think that the voters of Chicago were preparing to place him in his political grave. The Chicago Democrats "mashed the entire crowd of Republicans in that portion of the State, and Masonsays he carmot account for the sudden upheaval.

CHARGED HIS MIND.

If President Harrison really had any so rious intention of calling Congress together in extra session this month he will now probably chenge his mind. The American people have so unmercifully rebuked the Republicans for their outrageous legislation at the last session that the leaders will be only too glad to make as little parade before the public as possible between now and the 4th of March.

now and the 4th of March.

THE CAUSES.

It is generally conceded that the tariff and force bills, together with Porter's census, are responsible for the landshide that took the Republicans off their feet yesterday. The talk among Democrats and conservative Republicans is that the country simply got tired of Reed's gang. They want some legislation in favor of the farmers and the laboring-men. It has all been in favor of the manufacturer and the ex-soldier heretofore.

THE SPEAKERSHIP. Discussion of the next speakership has already commenced here, and the prevailing opinion is that either Judge Crisp, Colonel Hatch, or Mr. Bynum will walk away with that prize when the Fifty-second Congress meets; but there will of course be other candidates.

Colonel McCreary, of Kentucky, will be entered, and so will Messrs. Springer and Flower in all probability, but they will have no chance of being elected. It will go to one of the three first-named gentlemen.

THE DEMOCRATS JOLISTING.

There is great rejoicing here by the Democrats, and a large jollification meeting is to be held Friday night. THE LEGISLATIVE RESULT IN DOUBT. CHICAGO, November 5.—The Republican State Committee insists to-night that it will control, the General Assembly by 5 or on joint ballot, but the Democrats as vigorously insist that they will have a majority of I to 3. The result is still in doubt, and must remain so until the official returns are in, although the probabilities are that the Republicans will have a bare majority.

(By telsgraph to the Dispatch.) WASHINGTON, D. C., November 5. FAIR Forecast for Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia Fair weather till Friday night; warmer, southerly winds.

THE WEATHER IN RICHMOND YESTERDA' was clear and pleasant. Range of Thermometer at the front door of the Dispatch Office Yesterday:

Mean temperature......51% NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

New York, November 5 .- The stock mart to-day was reactionary in its nature, and with increased transactions all along the line material losses were sustained in almost everything traded in, notwithstanding the fact that many stocks in the early dealings reached the highest prices of the past week. London figures were materially higher this morning as compared with our final prices of Monday, and this mar-ket opened with a boom, everything being % to % per cent. higher.

The bears soon got to work in the sugar refineries, and the selling was very heavy and attended by considerable excitement, the stock dropping to 57 in the first half hour. Great feverishness attended dealings. Feeble rallies took place in the stock from time to time during the day, but later its price touched 54%—a loss of 6% per cent.—while at the close it had reached only 55, a net loss for the day of 5% per cent. The selling was eager and heavy, stop orders being covered at every ½ down. SUGAR BEARED. THE GENERAL LIST DOWN.

stop orders being covered at every % down.

The general list was favored by the strength of the London market and buying for London account in the early trading; but while the news of the day, especially that which which had a bearing upon the western-railroad situation, was of material influence in creating an improved feeling on the other side of the occan, a sudden and pronounced weakness was developed in the Vanderbilts, and the list could not withstand such an influence. The soling was well graarded, and opinions differ to-night as to whether it was long or short stock which was supplied in such quantities; but the effect was the same in either case, and a decline of 3 per cent. in New York Central had the effect of demoralizing to a certain extent the whole list. Lake Shore followed the leader closely, but the other Vanderbilts were comparatively well held and remained quiet. All leading stocks, however, felt the depression and yielded more or less, all showing material losses at the close.

At the lowest points the market failed to At the lowest points the market failed to show any recongentive power, and although some slight improvement was seen in the last hour the close was heavy at or near the lowest prices of the day. The heaviest trading in stocks of the regular list was in St. Paul, Union Pacific, and Louisville and Nashville, which furnished 32,800, 39,640, and 23,045 shares, respectively, to the grand total of 244,000, though Reading, which is only a "half stock," contributed 30,580. Sugar scored sales of 145,283 shares out of a total of unisted shares of 154,263.
